

Field Stone

WINERY & VINEYARD

Vintage: 2007 Convivio Red

Appellation: Alexander Valley

Blend: Merlot, Cabernet, Petite Sirah and Sangiovese

Average Sugar at Harvest: 24.0 Brix

Barrel Aged: 18 months (French, American, Hungarian Oak)

Average Acid at Bottling: 6.47 gm/liter

Average pH at Bottling: 3.53

Alcohol: 13.5% by volume

Cases Produced: 384

A Delicious Red M \acute{e} lange- That's Affordable!

Convivio is a Special Wine in Several Ways

In Italian, "con-vivio" means with-life, or, literally, life-together-with. Perhaps more than any other word, Convivio (con-viv-eo) evokes that sense of enlivening connectedness we experience when gathered around a table to share bread and wine and the substance of our lives with one another. In such communion, we believe that we and the world are made better. In addition, by purchasing our Convivio Red Wine you will contribute to the lives of the others since we donate a portion of the proceeds to Clinica Alianza, a non-profit medical center serving farm workers, their families, and the wider community in Sonoma Count's farmland.

The Vineyards & the Wine

The fruit for our delicious 2007 Convivio Red Wine involves a succulent blend of grapes from four of our prime Alexander Valley estate blocks: Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Sangiovese, and Petite Sirah, this delicious m \acute{e} lange is serendipitously unique and, as with '05 and '06 vintages, may rival its varietal brothers! The addition of our smooth, bright Merlot and Sangiovese to our big, bold Cabernet and petite Sirah, yielded a smooth, full-fruited red wine that, at its incredible value price, is a prime candidate for the most interesting "everyday red wine" you can buy. 'Enjoy. Give thanks. Convivio!'